New Generation English B· Diagnostic Test

C1 (Advanced Academic) B· Grammar

GRAMMAR (RANGE & ACCURACY)

1. ___ familiar patterns, the brain recognises them faster than it questions them.

A) Recognising вњ“ B) Recognised C) Having recognised

2. Not only ___ expertise produce depth, it also produces narrowness.

A) does вњ“ B) produces C) has

3. What an expert often lacks ___ awareness of their own blind spots.

A) had been B) is вњ“ C) it is

4. It is essential that experts ___ the limits of their own perspective.

A) name вњ“ B) names C) are naming

5. A wise client ___ have asked two specialists, not just one.

A) would вњ“ B) will C) can

6. ___ reliable in its proper domain, expertise still has clear blind spots.

A) Although вњ“ B) Despite C) However being

7. Cases ___ on procedural grounds shape a litigator's later thinking.

A) winning B) won вњ“ C) being won

8. ___ the field acknowledged this paradox earlier, training would have evolved differently.

A) If B) Had вњ“ C) Should

9. The cost of expert advice has become greater ___ the cost of seeking a second opinion.

A) as B) than вњ“ C) from

10. If institutions ___ this paradox seriously, training would look different.

A) took вњ“ B) had taken C) take

11. Doctors are not formally trained in cognitive bias; ___ , the gap remains.

A) that is to say вњ“ B) however C) moreover

12. The deeper implication ___ the institutions that train experts.

A) concerning B) concerns вњ“ C) concerned

Maria Burtseva B· whitenois@mail.ru B· Telegram @MariaBurceva_English B· PЂРќРќ 771771016209