READING PASSAGE

One of the most famous rulers of Russia was Peter I, also called Peter the Great. He wanted to make Russia a strong European power. In 1703, Peter founded a new city on the banks of the Neva River — St. Petersburg. Later, he moved the capital from Moscow to St. Petersburg. This city became a "window to Europe" and a symbol of new reforms.

After Peter, Russia was ruled by other Tsars and emperors from the Romanov dynasty. Under them, St. Petersburg grew and became a beautiful capital city with palaces, canals and bridges.

One of the main symbols of St. Petersburg is the Hermitage. This is a huge museum located in the Winter Palace. The Winter Palace used to be the residence of Russian emperors. Now the Hermitage holds thousands of paintings, sculptures and historical objects. It is one of the biggest and most famous museums in the world. Tourists from all over the world come to St. Petersburg to see its beauty and learn about Russian history.

The Russian flag is also connected with Peter the Great. In 1705, he introduced the tricolor flag of white, blue and red for Russian ships. Later it became the national flag. The colours have a traditional meaning:

- White stands for peace, purity and nobility.
- Blue stands for faith, loyalty and honesty.
- Red stands for courage, strength and energy.

Today, the Russian flag is a symbol of the country's history and its people.

KEY FACTS TO REMEMBER

- 1703 — Peter I founds St. Petersburg on the Neva
- 1705 — first Russian tricolor (for ships)
- Winter Palace = residence of tsars · now the Hermitage museum
- Romanov dynasty — родовая династия · Peter I → Nicholas II
- Flag colours order top→bottom: white · blue · red
